Dear Parents/Guardians

Y6 trip- Greenwich Junior Citizen Event at Thamesmead Sporting Club

On Tuesday 25th June 2024, Justice class will be visiting Thamesmead Sporting Club to participate in the Greenwich Junior Citizenship Event.

The Junior Citizen Scheme started in Greenwich over 30 years ago and now runs in most London Boroughs, due to the importance of the messages given.

Junior Citizen is a safety education event for year 6 pupils, helping them prepare for Secondary School transition and the new responsibilities they have as independent travellers and at home. By providing and reminding them of important safety information, knowledge and skills.

On the day they will visit mini workshops covering topics such as:

- Road Safety
- Personal Safety
- Fire Safety
- First Aid
- Tube and Bus Safety
- Dog Safety

We will be walking and as the event finishes at 3pm, we will aim to be back in school for 3.15pm for normal end of day. Children are expected to be in their school uniform. Lunch will be eaten in school as usual.

We would like to have up to about three parents go on this trip with us. Please do speak to me at the door if you are available.

Kind regards

Ms Spinks
